

Cello Harmonics Quiz

The attached musical snippet represents a familiar tune, as played on the cello using only natural harmonics, fingered at or near the note positions indicated. Of course the resulting harmonics will sound as different pitches than the written notes.

The notes are indicated without rhythm or meter.

Your task is to determine the correct string for each note, and which harmonic should sound there, and ultimately what the tune is.

